NEED FOOD FOR THE WEEK-END?

The Mendocino Coast Children's Fund offers this update: The Friday Family Food Pantry serves children who otherwise would not have enough food on weekends. Volunteers range in age from teens to seniors. The Friday Family Food Pantry, located at the Fort Bragg Senior Center, makes it possible for more coast children to be helped. The pantry is open by referral to families with children from 1-4 pm on Fridays.

TAG IS BACK

Katie Toler, Americorps Volunteer from the Mendocino Coast Clinics, is starting up the after school program on Nov. 1 called TAG – Teen Advocacy Group. FBHS students are invited to attend this always-interesting gathering here at Safe Passage on Mondays, 3:30-5. Katie rocks.

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MEETING

On Wed. Nov. 3 the MCCAPC – Mendocino Coast Child Abuse Prevention Council – will hold its quarterly meeting at 4:00 at Safe Passage. All are welcome. We'll discuss how the Positive Role Models conference went, make final plans for the upcoming Kids Workshop for Dana Gray Kudos kids, and discuss the Adopt-A-Family program.

CLASSES WITH TERESA & CHELA

We are pleased to announce that Teresa Rodriguez will be teaching a class in Spanish called Su Hijo: La Vida en la Escuela (Your Child's Life in School) on Thurs. Nov. 4 and Thurs. Dec. 2, 6:30-8 pm at Safe Passage. Information about progress reports, homework requirements, and communicating with teachers will be covered. Discipline with Confidence will be offered in Spanish starting in December. Chela Ruano will teach this 6-week class on Monday evenings. Start date to be announced.
